

COMPANY'S INTERNAL CODE OF CONDUCT FOR PREVENTION OF INSIDER TRADING

INTRODUCTION:

Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI) has replaced the SEBI (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 1992 with SEBI (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015. These Regulations are now called the SEBI (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations 2015, (hereinafter referred to as "the regulations"). The Regulations seek to govern the conduct of the Insiders, Connected Persons and Persons who are deemed to be connected persons on matters relating to Insider Trading.

The Regulations requiring all listed companies and other specified entities to set up an appropriate mechanism and to frame and enforce a code of conduct and internal procedures prescribing various disclosures of interests or holding to be made by directors, officers and substantial shareholders in the listed Companies.

OBJECTIVE:

The Objects of the Regulations is to prevent insider trading by prohibiting trading, communicating or counseling on matters relating to insider trading as specified in the Regulations.

The Regulation provides that no insider shall;

- Either on his own behalf or on behalf of any other person, trade in securities of a Company listed on any Stock Exchange(s) when in possession of any unpublished price sensitive information; or
- Communicate, counsel or procure, directly or indirectly, any unpublished price sensitive information to any person who while in possession of such unpublished price sensitive information shall not deal in securities.

Such restriction shall not be applicable to any communication required in the ordinary course of business or under any law.

Regulation also provides that no Company shall deal in the securities of another listed Company or associate of that other Company while in possession of any unpublished price sensitive information.

WHAT IS INSIDER TRADING?

Insider Trading is the buying or selling or dealing in the securities of a listed Company by a director, member of the management, an employees of the Company, firm or by any other person such as internal and statutory auditor, agent, advisor, analyst, consultant, etc., who has knowledge of material inside information not available to the general public.
